TERMS OF REFERENCES DEVELOPMENT OF A FACT SHEET ON ADOLESCENT SEXUAL REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH RIGHTS.

Objective of the Terms of Reference and Key Task	Recruitment of Interested and Qualified Consultant to develop a Fact Sheet on challenges for Adolescent SRHR in Tanzania.
Background and Rationale of the Assignment	The Legal and Human Rights Centre (LHRC) is a Tanzanian, Non-Governmental Organization that is Private, Voluntary, Non-Partisan, and not-for-profit sharing organization. It is registered under the NGO Act 2002 as amended and has been in operation since September 1995. To learn more about LHRC, please visit our website: www.humanrights.or.tz In June 2019, LHRC and CRR submitted a communication to the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child under Article 44 of the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child. The communication was filed on behalf of Tanzanian girls against the United Republic of Tanzania, seeking to defend their right to education as outlined in the Charter. The case raised critical issues, including the right to education, equality, and non-discrimination; protection from harmful social practices and stereotypes; the principle of the best interests of the child; the right to health, including access to sexual and reproductive health services; the right to privacy and dignity; and freedom from cruel, inhuman, and degrading treatment. In its 39th Ordinary Session, the Committee issued a decision finding Tanzania in violation of multiple provisions of the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child. After the delivery of the decision by the Committee, LHRC and CRR embarked on a journey to ensure its implementation and protect girls' rights. Since then, LHRC and CRR have supported the URT in implementing the decision, including conducting various meetings with relevant ministries to develop a roadmap and action plan for execution. In 2024, during its 44th session, the Committee invited the URT, CRR, and LHRC for an implementation hearing. The hearing highlighted progress on a few recommendations related to the right to education. However, most recommendations concerning adolescent SRHR remained unimplemented. Recognizing this gap, LHRC plans to develop a fact sheet to communicate to relevant stakeholders regarding the importance of implementation various recommendations on Adolescent SRHR. This effort aims to ensure the full realization of adolescent SRHR,

	particularly in light of increasing reports of sexual violence against girls and child on child sexual abuse. It is upon this background that LHRC is planning to develop a Fact sheet as an advocacy tool to push for the implementation of specific SRHR recommendations. The product will help in generating evidence, data and lessons for knowledge sharing and will inform plans where challenges are evident. Moreover, the Fact sheet is intended to primarily inform LHRC and partners to contribute to the collective advocacy to garner increased accountability and resource commitments in advancing adolescent SRHR and their rights to education.
